INNOVATION FROM TRADITION

UNCOMPROMISINGLY GOOD

1853

Established in 1853

In 1853, Daniel Straub, a miller from Geislingen, joined forces with the Schweizer Brothers to form the "Metallwarenfabrik Straub & Schweizer" in Geislingen. This was the second company to be founded by Straub – previously in 1850, from the nucleus of a small repair workshop, which he had set up to work on the construction of Geislingen's famous railway incline, he had founded the Maschinenfabrik Geislingen. This company was involved mainly in manufacturing mill turbines and traded throughout Europe.

1907 International company

Under Hugo Debach the company gained international standing. At the turn of the century the factory in Geislingen employed 3,000 workers. By 1910, this number had already grown to 4,000, making WMF the largest company in Württemberg at this time. Sales catalogues were printed in twelve languages. Subsidiary companies in London, Warsaw and Vienna opened up export markets.

1927 Cromargan®, stainless 18/10

A decisive factor in the company's history was the securing of exclusive rights to use the special V2A steel, developed by Krupp, for the production of WMF table and kitchenware items. This material was registered under the name of Cromargan® which is nowadays synonymous with 18/10 stainless steel. WMF launched its first Cromargan® cookware range at the Leipzig Trade Fair in 1927, followed a few years later by the introduction of the first Cromargan® cutlery.

2013 160 years of WMF

WMF celebrates its 160th birthday. WMF has grown from the small plaqué factory, Straub & Schweizer, into an international organisation with 6,000 employees. Even in times of economic difficulty WMF has maintained its position with flexibility, and far-sighted business decisions, which have not been without risk. As a modern design conscious business the organisation is well equipped for the future.

FUNCTIONAL LINES WITH STYLE

Functionality and modern design are the essence of WMF's cutlery range. Uncomplicated, reductionist style combined with clear contouring is what makes the design classic of tomorrow. It fits with any architectural style and is the perfect match for contemporary interior design. The cutlery sits perfectly in your hand.

BOLD FORMS WHICH STRIKE AGAINST THE NORM

Only things that are unique can be considered special. This cutlery series is for those restaurateurs who want to strike out against the norm and distinguish themselves from their competition. Change is the only constant and trends are not only talked about, but lived.

The Nordic cutlery series, for example, is the perfect stylistic means of introducing the Asian trend to gastronomy, both visually and sensually. It's the ideal cutlery range for all those who want their creativity in the kitchen to be reflected in their cutlery.

She went on to study design at the Art Center College of Design in California, USA and finished with a "Bachelor of Science." Having finished her studies, she went to work for Barry Kieselstein-Cord (among others) and later for Polo Ralph Lauren in New York. In September 1997, she founded her own company, 'JETTE GmbH' with its headquarters in Hamburg and Berlin. Since September 2003 Jette Joop has served as the Children's Ambassador for the German Red Cross and is involved in many of their projects. In 2006 she received the 'Duftstars' Award for her first perfume "JETTE." In 2008, her work as the Children's ambassador for the German Red Cross was acknowledged when she received the "Goldene Erbse" award from the German Fairyland Association (Verein Märchenland e.V.). In 2009, Jette Joop received the "Leading Ladies Award" in the "International Companies with Women Power" category. Jette Joop lives and works in Hamburg und Berlin. She is married and has one daughter and one son.

He is one of the most influential German fashion designers of the last few years. His style nights as part of the Berlin Fashion Week are legendary and each time are eagerly anticipated – not only the new collection but also his extraordinary performances. Michael Michalsky is a master of staging. He started as a designer for Levi's. He gave the sports brand Adidas a modern successful image. In 2006 Michalsky founded his own fashion label. Modern – urbane – wearable – are the attributes given to his collections for men and women. Michalsky relies on classic cuts which he breaks up with streetwear influences.

This is how he has created a style all of his own, designed for people who like dressing up. Individuality for Michalsky is not just reduced to the external appearance. It is also reflected in the things people surround themselves with. Consequently he is active in many fields. He designs rooms, furniture, stage costumes – and now something new: JAZZ, exclusive fashion cutlery for Auerhahn.

ENJOY YOUR STEAK IN STYLE

Whether the steak is "rare", "medium" or "well done" becomes more or less irrelevant given the fact that WMF HOTEL's accessories mean you can enjoy it in style regardless. The WMF knife has a longer cutting edge which means WMF blades can cut through even the tenderest filets. A hearty steak, served direct from the grill is, and shall always remain, an unrivalled pleasure. Originality, traditional goodness and quality instead of unnecessary tampering are what WMF stands for.

THE NATURAL LOOK

Wood represents the natural environment, sustainability and high-quality. The value of real, natural wood has become even greater at a time when it has become hard to tell, at first glance, the difference between imitation wood and the real thing. The subtle differences in the structure and the incomparable feel of real wood are why the PURE EXCLUSIV NATURE series represents true quality. High-quality, precision workmanship represents style and an appreciation for nature.

POURING PLEASURE

The fine, thin style of a wine glass already gives your guest the impression of elegance even before he or she has taken the first sip. The thickness of the glass communicates a sense of quality to the mouth and the way in which the wine sits in the glass has a long-lasting effect on the taste. The clarity of the glass and absence of unsightly blemishes allows the full beauty of the drink's natural colour to shine through. With FIRSTGLASS, you can be certain that you'll be able to provide your guests with a first-class experience, even after years of use.

You can find more items from the FIRSTGLASS series in the FIRSTGLASS brochure.

WMF DIVINE – CLEAR LINES

Like the handmade individual pieces of yesteryear, DIVINE has captivated guests with its gently curved, thin-walled body which flows into soft lines at the stem and base. From the base, the glass develops into a tapered opening for ultimate drinking satisfaction, enabling the full bouquet of the wine to be appreciated.

CHAFING DISH OR POT

Colour me!

A Chafing Dish in a Buffet Pot design will instantly make your guests think, "this has been freshly cooked." The stylish containers in contemporary colours are an instant eye-catcher in any buffet. The small inserts, when more frequently refilled, actually guarantee shorter heat-retention times. This means that your meals will be fresher, tastier and healthier.

The transparent glass lids allow your guests to easily see what's inside which will enable them to make faster decisions. Once the practical lid is open, the guest has both hands free to serve him / herself and the lid is kept within safe reaching distance.

Made of Silargan® - indestructible, easy to clean and nickel free. Glass lid made of high-quality heat resistant glass.
